Profile

After graduation in 2005 at the Willem de Kooning Academie Fashion Design I have been mainly working in the luxury Fashion industry. Over the years I have been able to gain a lot of experience in the different fashion houses and through working with several creative directors and designers. I worked on the development of prototypes and bespoke collection pieces, as well as made to measure for private clients and celebrities. In 2018 I started my own fashion and accessories atelier WIM WorkShop to offer a made to measure service.
